Evening Public Tedger PUBLIC LEDGER COMPANY

CYRUS H. K. CURVIS, Parameter Charles B. Lauffington, Vice President, J. Martin, Reservance and Treasurer, Phillip B. John H. Williams, John J. Spurgeer, De-EDITORIAL BOARD.

DAVID E. SMILEY.

JOHN C. MARCIN ... General Pushess Minney

BELL, 2000 WALNET KES-TOTT, STANS NOW

Member of the Associated Press habits of Congress may be fretful. The How shall it be granded ? By what have American tradition to sustain them. that even to treaten it It is evident in every stage toward the inevitable passage of the tourty.

THIS SIDE THE RIO GRANDE

whirred with such Information there would be no doubt that life and property in the republic to the south of us were imperfectly protected.

Is there any less question about existing conditions in the city of Philadelphin? The hold-up yesterday in a lewelry store on Thirteenth street last below Chestnut is the tenth of a veries of similar bold outrages since September 17 The obligation of the nolles to prevent such infamics is indeed extremely press-main portal of St. Mark's. Rome saw only a man!" them first in the first century of the | A lot of people are being stored now | formation about what happened in the Christian era, when Nero, it is believed, because they are merely men, with men's time of his ancestors. had them fashioned to adorn a triumphal | normal derives and limitations. That is arch. Some 300 years later Constantine, not a good thing for the country. mindful of beautifying his new Rome on leaves too many wounds. Let us admit the Bosporus, transported them to Con- what is apparent—that the Government

When grim old Dogo Dandolo captured the city in 1204 the quadriga was natu- few malignant idiots who are about and rally among the most cherished peizes. The handful of perverts who listen to Venice received them with joy and, sym- them have made a small florry in the mishes a pretty good care manner her, bolizing her grandeur, they graced her current of events and that is all. Such eathedral for another cycle. Napoleon revolutionary sentiment as exists in this eventually extinguished the once proud country can be extinguished by a sheriff's republic with a gesture. Once more the pooce or a fire home. horses were spoils of war and Paris guarded them until the French empire to St. Mark's and there they remained | are native to this hand of ours have now. until the dark days of 1917, when the and will have in the future, a better car Hun reached the Piave. Rome, whence coption of Americanism than a good they sprang, had her own ugain until many people who talked more and did the peril was passed. Longer than any. loss than they. The United States is in where else, however, they dwelt in no danger. It has warmed and be-Venice, where they recalled the days | friended and lifted up too many millions when she did "hold the gorgeous East in and made homes for too many of the

It is fitting that they should once more able trophies resounding lyre.

THE ETERNAL GRANDMOTHER TT HAS finally sunk into our consciousthat-that Washington did not always hold the constitution of the United States in one hand and a sword in the other. We know also that he swore roundly at Charles Lee at Monmouth, that he was a wretched speller and, well-just human,

Kings and queens seemed less adapted to "realistic" treatment. Huck, Tom and Miss Watson's Jim decided that they were crowns and "just hopped around," Some of them did more, and that, as a mile, made matters worse. Furthermore, nomposity always did make Americans

But most of us do like grandmothers, and when the queen dowager of Great Britain writes Mr. Wilson that she is glad he could "spare a moment to see my precious grandson," a mood much I divinely appointed guardians of the holy ingham palace is invoked. The change is refreshing and yet fear fully subversive of our ancient antipathies. It is really, barring the "Reds," : cheery world after all. The nicest git in Providence is to be endowed, the coal miners won't fight the government, Jer-openly adore their grandsons. scene by interviewing his highness of wards to the United States Serate. If his library with a litter of books on the Wales. It's fine to be a favorite, but is the organization is to help in peace to table. Some of them were hig quartes and are so much more popular than mere | toans well-meaning people. It will have

PLENTY OF WORK IS AHEAD

Gas Must Be Fored in America and the Time Has Come to Mon Up the Palitical Boones

Larion. The sufacence is of course, to lead the easy-going and the exclusions, the moral and collision entity that is may. To critica, politicians, capitalists, labor quence are almost invariably pursed at that we have inhorized. It is a magnifi-the cleventh hour and after every normal continuous of that needs only window ber of the upper house is thereumbly and honor in its direction to be in him. wearied with futile oratory and propose meny with the overpowering the we of Somehow the job gets dene. One may there and chance hands sometimes per not admire the procedure, but to be hard of the machinery. But the talks panicky about it is to squander the emetions. The time eventually acrives when It can arrow be in Sanger until men loss even La Follette's voice is husky.

Persons still unacquainted with the days, ought to approach that question 4 hid commonly credited to Homer.

Those will be subarer years before For example, a catch phrase in a to-long and doubtless we shall look back bacco advertisement was quoted and tract public opinion-when public opin- pick out the shoe manufacturer. They ion should be informed, after and inex- wave required to tell whether a trade

A THEME FOR D'ANNUNZIO

POETS in politics are seldom on good terms with the Muses. Milton in swept the newspapers. And then the surface continuous contemporary life when the students of a swept the newspapers. And then the terms with the Muses. Milton in swept the newspapers. And then the university are expected to know these Cromwell's cabinet was too busy to write and full tors and publicists, the paragraphers things. Of course, they must know other "Comus" and Gabriele d'August and the states men who had been wrings or a also, but there was a time when the and travels grandly in his military terms, were suddenly struck cold by the concerned with anything that happened motorcar. This is regrettable on several | news of Mr. Wilson's illness. They felt | less than a hundred years ago. If the of the United States nover has been and never can be striously menneed. The

It seems to us that the men who went abroad into mud and fire and desolation The Congress of Vienna restored them to fight for the faith and the beliefs that

In its faith, at least, it has been perdignify the gleaming plazze, miracu- fect. It believed in people and people lously proof against the Austrian air. Insturally believe in it. It will grow men's bombs. It is fitting that D'An. stronger and more splendid, not by laws nunzio, who glorified Venice in "La alone or by repressions and restrictions Nave," should have something to say applied to groping multitudes, but when about the restoration of her imperish- every man everywhere turns to it, in some future day of enlightenment, with It is art's loss if he chooses to smite all the strength of his arms and all the the Paris conference instead of his once | passionate devotion of his heart, tendered because that tribute is well deserved.

There will be no exceptions after we have had a little more time. And meanwhile, so long as there is a man of a woman or a child removed in any way ness-modern historians have seen to | from the inspiration that flows from the consciousness and experience of pure and friendly justice, we can only feel that our work is not yet altogether done.

> It is because the American Legion will be greatly honored that it can easily inspire broader definitions of Americanism than those we are accustomed to hear. The traitors, rioters and murderers have had their day of futile violence. They are eliminated. And if there is any danger to the country it can come only through mean or unfit men who are permitted for a time to misuse the machinery of national affairs. There always have been men who like to drag dirt into temples. And there always are others who believe that they are the more of the old homestead than of Buck- place, with the privilege of money changg in the approaches.

There are easy ways to deal with them. The method was provided when the constitution was written. The American Legion as an organization abould keep out of party politics. sey trolley fares are numbling and queens It will be wiser to stand apart as an influence for consistent and enlightened It is best, however, not to shadow the criticism all along the line from the city scene by interviewing his highness of wards to the United States Serate. If it ericket publicly to proclaim a chao | realize the aims for which its members as "herrious". Grandmothers have no fought in the war it will have to keep its shame in such affairs. That's why they | eyes free of the dust that blinds a great to look beyond frees to find-the truth.

It will have no easy time with the politiciano. Little and mean men will FOR THE AMERICAN LEGION | scheme and fight and plot and postuge and against for its support and friendship. Yet the Logion cannot afford to make hurriselly if it is to effect the gencral morning up that is needed in the 44 Trill forms for it. Now much it?" fell as an incomey of steadying, callonal I So come the community of posters and inspired upinton and as the enemy bound to call men into the American of any one who deliberately tries to mis-

EDUCATION UP TO DATE

charge that the higher institutions of the st Tourning are unintrested in content-

When the local University set out to the intelligence of the freedoman and GREAT, Jumping Jehosaphat, man't chars it did not ask the students a lot of few philosophers will remain value. They meaned Who are what are the agencies clare it did not ask the students a lot of The American Lagren, which may by This, the difference between sublapshift to have begun its enseer with the parament and post-sublapsarianism, and apparently intoxicated by the incense which conventions and elections of the Inst few the theories about the authorship of the suffering from the cerebral tumefaction unhapping you is a mond for close no- In all the 168 questions submitted toxication, had many pungent things to so THREE levelry stores in the Cinco alysis. The Lexicon will be a power or allowed to the war, there was not one dealing with ancient and with Whitman. She slung words after the property of safe from Calbushua restaus and seemed to allow the war. They can set a great expectation of the standard mythology. A scare of more were intended to test the ability without restaud to the feelings of the standard of the standard to detect false reasoning. What is dead. And during his life he was not one dealing with ancient and wall property with a power of the standard of the rant. Desperadoes terrorise Mexican thinking they can do a new service in Another score were intended to disclorations. Robberies insolently committed the country. They, of all people, should whether they read a question carefully in daytime and in crowded metropolitan shopping districts."

If the wires from Carranza's country the scuffle for the origins of such trouble translated to the discovery of their the wires from the scuffle for the origins of such trouble translated to the discovery of their the wires from the scuffle for the origins of such trouble translated to the discovery of their the wires from the scuffle for the origins of such trouble translated to the discovery of their the wires from the scuffle for the origins of such trouble translated to the discovery of their translated to the discovery of their translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the discovery of their translated to the discovery of their translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the discovery of their translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the discovery of their translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the discovery of their translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of such translated to the scuffle for the origins of scuffle for the origins of such translated to the origins of scuff with contrition upon some of the times they were naked what it referred to. A upon it, that now are being said and does in the list of half a dozen well-known advername of matrictism to confuse and the tisers was given and they were asked to Miss Lowell wants to put over is that it is orably discriminating. Flash judgments, mane-it was that of a typewriter-was intolerance, excitoment are everywhere. | used to designate a phonograph, an automobile, a Bievele or a typewriter. The An easy cynicism, a sort of blatant questions could not be answered unless

ing cynical epigrams out of the peace | colleges lived in the past and were uncounts, and especially because at the present moment there is a superb theme to be sung.

the shadow descending on them again, "We stoned him." said one of the Cospendent will be required to penhagen papers of the President, "been every student will be required to read at least one newspaper every day The bronze horses surmount again the cause he was not a god; because he was in order that his knowledge of contem notary history may grow with his in-

> Funna Goldman re-Whoa, Emma! they to miswer questions, put to doe in deportation proceedings, contending that the government has no right to investigate ; fact that Emma has not always bee, so retiefficient of this country gave the weight of their approval both to the draft and income people sq expressed gas far to prove one's Trades is smooth ring recommendations that strikes be should find the money spent in strike benefits be used in a nation-wide campuign to educate the American people in the principles of organized labor. The suggested action is the direct result of the shooting of American soldiers by I. W. W. men in Centralia, Wash, Which is one of many instances which seem to prove that these solutions and not the In value.

The spectacle of Syra-Sounds Like Kultur case students armed with rilles parcolling their granuds in order to prevent Colgate "spiles" from learning their formations for the manual football game tomorrow savors omentar of tages comeds. Are we to preif "spice" had shown themselves? What atleman's game or a game for Hous with Hun tueties?

Considering that the government is going to retain and lease te piers and warehouses to commercial inprosts, ell of which has significance in making Philadelphia one of the greatest sorts in the world, Greenwich Point may all be considered one of the city's chiefest

The Entente has Pretty Raw granted Austria a loan of $60,000,000, most if which will be utilized for the purchase of raw material. Must be going to buy some f its old propaganda.

The joy being manifested by the few newspapers in the country that are opposed to both the covenant and the peace treaty in the fact that both seem to be in danger is on a par with the psychological candition of the man in pre-prohibition days who was

THAT PRETTY SCRAP AT THE CONTEMPORARY CLUB

it Was as Exciting as Any Combat With Fists at the Olympia

Tills things that Pericarp is not interested in are so few that I never know what he will be occupied with when I make my children in a cursery. As usual, he gave no heed to me when I entered. But he was not or the deck. There was a thin book in his left bond with a flager inserted between the caves to keep it open. His face were no spression of deep thought and his ever cere looking inward instead of at the out

I scontrolled a match to relight my clear The slight noise seemed to bring him to "Oh, it's you, is it?" he said quietly, looking in any direction at last,

"Difference over attend a faceling of the Contemporary Club?" he asked, "No? Neither alld I until Wednesday night," und be smiled remainiscently. "That club is h of the need were predicted in this person and was a strong summands. In these patches become age also except to the patches age and the pat torial precedent with respect to impor-tant legislation. Acts of vital course is a poster civil action that negret are almost a poster of vital course is no negret are almost present and the posterior of the posterior that the posterior of the mun or a nation. And we are or that result find greater enjoyment. Before the creating was over I was unable to find a single man who looked as if he were bored.

It was as pretty a scrap as I ever saw TF THE other colleges follow the ex- And the charm of it lay in the fact that it I ample of the University of Permay). was conducted the way children play their grams. You know they make their rules as they go along. When one of them is get-ting the worst of it he insists on a new rule which will let him out." "But what was it all about?"

positions about the angestry of Queen shout the eliquette of literary criticism Ann Lowell, a brahminee from Boston which always accompanies a state of in used to hostile criticism. Miss Lowell up-parently believed that it was proper to con-tinue to say lard things about him in spite of the old Latin maxim, de mortais, all nist bonum. But the fun came when come other people began to say things about the living men and women writing free verse. Miss Lowell refused to countenance criticism of the living. The cause of free verse is sacred. It is sacrilege to cast slurs

> "Now I gather that the proposition which proper to my hard things about those who can't defend themselves, while it is a grave reach of literary eliquette to say anything ant praise about that little group of writers of new poetry, the chief of which she has frankly admitted herself to be,"

"It must have been almost as entertaining a scrap at the Olympia," said 1.

"I have never attended a debate at that temple of art,", Pericarp confessed, "but I do not believe that those who do attend ever enjoyed unything there more thoroughly than the members of the Contemporary this enjoyed the unexpected combat staged for their benefit."

ies before him. A quizzient smile lit up

GOT HAVE been rerending some of the new nostry," he went on. "And I have been refreshing toy memory on Miss Lowell's riews about it. She takes it and herself ery seriously. Did you ever see an eighteen-yenr-old boy order n new suit of ciothes? He has studied the fashion plates and is most deeply concerned about the width of the lunels, the number of buttons on the over his body and give it warmth seems to be seem to bim of much greater importance than anything else. Now the free-verse people remaind me of such a boy. A new fushion in poetry has arisen. Who set the fushion in the present day does not matter. Miss Lewell, Erra Pound, Carl Sandberg. Helen Declittle and a score of others are

"What does the new spetry amount to?" I asked to keep him going. He opened a thin book and read:

"When Kang YI had been long dead the empress decread amon him posthumous decapitation, so that he walks forever disgraced among the shades."

"This is a sample from Proffles From China,' by Eunice Tietjens. It is a whole nocus, contained in a sentence with no atbut much of the free verse is like it. Nothing more is attempted than to produce an impression on the mind of the reader. The call it imagist verse as a subdivision of free verse. It reminds me of an artist's pre-liminary sketches for a painting. If there is to be a group of figures the artist will draw a hand and an ear, a foot and a bit of drapery, an arm and a leg, a torso and a nose. But the artist does not regard these sketches as completed pictures. They are merely preparations for the picture.

corpuention in his later years used to I hewail the fact that the younger poets were occupied with triplets and other poetic confectious instead of dealing with the big ouman problems of their generation. The free versitlers seem content with a medium which does not lend itself to the expression of big ideas, and their attention is so fully occupied with technique that they do not seem to be able to think of anything else.

One that was a pretty evan Wednesday night," he went on. "And it did not settle anything. The championship belt was not awarded to the victor, for there was not any winner. Yet they tell me it was one of the most satisfying and successful meetings of the Contemporary Club in all its history," I escaped just as Pericarp began to read to me from an anthology of new verse a poem beginning: I live in a one-room house Because a one-room house is all I have Today, let us hope, miners and opera-tors in conference in Washington will show a disposition of mutual helpfulness. The market anticipated the mercury in the thermometer in the matter of taking a

"COME ON AN' LET'S GET ACQUAINTED!"

THE SAUCEPAN

Vers Libre CAN Write vers libre. All 1 need Is a few ideas And a publisher Who'll pay Space rates For what I can fill. And thea 1'll make enough To keep me And my friend wife In luxury The rest of my days. It pays:

OAKLET. We Say So!

Amy Lowell looked at the assemblage of men and women in evening clothes and said apologetically. "I had to appear as I am ise my trunks have not arrived. And we have no doubt in the world that she would have looked very well in 'em. But she managed to make a sensation, any

Thanks, Awfully

Chaffing Dish or Saucepan, We like our evening trent; Or chafing dishes heat. Both would fain repeat; Chaffing Dish or Saucepan. Keep up the glowing heat.

Life is but a chaffing dish,

The daily round of man: And many of our worries Are like the frying pan. The wisest man will seldom fret, Enjoy life while he can, With relish taste the Chaffing Dish Or wealth of frying pan. JAY-MA-KEM.

"Letts Clear Riga of the Germans," says newspaper headline. Good advice. Let's

A Prescription

When you have what they call the "blues," When zest and joy of life you lose And at your task you balk, Don't stay indoors and nurse your ills; Try this—'tis better for than pills— Go out and take a walk.

You'll find that breasting winds and storms Oft drives away those ugly forms Of doubt that with you stalk. wash in God's pure air your son And let the sunshine make you whole-Go out and take a walk.

Although within a town you bide. There's san, there's rain, sky arches wi'le, And children at their play; And even on a city tree The leaves of healing grow for thee -Co, walk from care away. The ones who sit and more at fate.

Of "melancholy days" who prate, Show plainly by their talk They need the robin's song to know, To find the treasures of the snow-They need to take a walk MAUD FRAZER JACKSON Laurel Springs, N. J., November 10, 1919,

A Household Hint

There is a hardwood floor polish that I can confidently vouch for but hesitate to ecommend, said the Lady of the House; but I'll give you the recipe and you may use your own judgment. Take a dozen quinces, half a dozen pears and five apples; carefully pare, core and quarter; cover with water and cook until soft, fruit in one saucepan and parings in another. Put in a stout bag and let drain and drip until moisture has an oven square out. While waiting for the next consignment of sagar return to the saucepan and heat, carefully measuring exact quantity in and drip until moisture bus all been squeezed cupfuls. At boiling point pour into a glass fruit jar with a cracked bottom.

Mop up the mess with a housecloth and a scrub pail. The result will be a perfect floor polish with a jelly finish. My Girls

There's Annabel, Alice and Dolly, Elizabeth, Elsie and Flo: Also Margaret, Mabel and Polly, And Katie and Mary and Jo. Now Annabel says I'm a darling, While Margaret calls me a dear;

Jo thinks I'm the king of Egypt-She must have been dreaming, I fear. Elsie and Flo seem to doubt me. Their tender regards I have spurned.

Elizabeth swears my love is the kind For which she has always yearned, It's nearly the same with the others, I've set each dear head in a whirl;

Because every one of them loves me-But I love another girl.

CLAYTON ALCOTT.

The Bard of Common Things I sing of haystacks, nails and tacks; of plumbers' bills and milkman's tricks; of gladsome hearts and weary backs; of joyous blurbs and grouchy blicks; of out-of-doors and coming frosts; of hearts and sweet engagement rings; of poker games both won and lost, for I'm a bard of common things. No highbrow stuff e'er hits my lyre. low-geared muse ne'er hits the high. Of simple things I never tire. To give them interest I try. Of prohibition I may tell; and oft the daily poems sings of trials of H. C. of L., for I'm a bard of common things. So hall the Pegasus I ride! He pranees at a joyous gait along the merry country side. He isn't dull at any rate.

And what I have to say maybap will cause your troubles to take wings. Ah, yes, I am a clever chap! I am the JERRY BHA.

The Hopes That Vanish Like a sentinel at a lone campfire

A star shines at break of day; And it seems like the planet of Heart's Desire

(Though the hopes will fade with the dying As the star fades at break of day),

Like a bencon bright on the storm-tossed

The sun shines at close of day; And it seems like the land of Things We Crave (Though our hopes will vanish beneath the wave As the snn sinks at close of day).

Like the watchful eye of the God of Night The moon shines at early eye; And it seems like the promise of hopes in sight (Though the promise will fade at the close of night

As the moon sinks at early eve), So the Sentinel and the Beacon Bright And the Eye of the Darkness God Hold our strands of hope to the earth-bound

To the pauper and prince and clod: But the hopes will vanish as does the night When the day lights the path we pled! ROBERT L. BELLEM.

Fight-hour day with rates unchanged urged for nurses.—New-paper headline. Let's see. Three nurses at $35 a week, doctor at $3 a visit, medicines? Cheaper to die than be sick now.

That Reed instrument persists in keeping out of tune.

The fear expressed in these columns that some among the city's policemen would feel lonesome when taken out of politics has already been justified.

LITTLE ESKIMO

T LTTLE Eskimo, are you Li Glad you live in your igloo? I would spend the snowy day Thinking thoughts of far away, If I were you In your igloo-

Here the houses are so tall People used not creep at all— When you creep in, Eskino, Do you find it pleasant, so? Little Eskimo, do you Play with snow the long year through, You have never been at play Romped about in meadow flowers All the long vacation hours.

Little Eskimo, would you Like to live in our land, too? -Annette Wynne, in For Days and Days. Officials of the University Hospital exect to catch the thief who stole the $6000 tube of radium by burns that will develop as a result of carrying it around. Either that or the evidences of worry consequent to the expectation of such burns developing. Somewhere in town there is still a man whose heart has not prompted the giving of a dollar, and Red Cross workers continue the search for him until Saturday midnight.

Mr. Walton finds much significance ta the telegram once sent by Senator Quay to Governor Beaver: "Dear Beaver, don't talle. What Do You Know?

QUIZ

1. Name two famous books, written by foreigners, concerning American government and institutions? When was the first full of Jerusalem?

3. Who is the patron saint of Scotland? 4. How many submarines did Germany build during the war? 5. What is the correct pronunciation of the French phrase "bon mot"?

6. What is the attitude of the British House of Lords concerning the admission of women as members? 7. Who was Vieuxtemps? 8. Name three kinds of whales?

9. How old is the Washington monument?

session of Pennsylvania? ... Answers to Yesterday's Quiz Radium is metal resembling barium, yielded by pitchblende, discovered in 10, How did William Penn come into pos-

1898 and named from its radio-ac-2. Eugene Scribe was a prolific French playwright and opera librettist. His dates are 1791-1861.

The Bolshevists have been in power in Russia since November, 1917.

4. Augustin de Iturbide was emperor of Mexico from 1822 to 1823. Ferdinand Joseph Maximilian, archduke of Ausbecame emperor of Mexico in He was executed at Queretaro in 1867. 5. Artificial legs came to be caffed cork legs because numbers of them were manufactured by a firm in Cork, Ire-

6. Franklin D. Roosevelt is assistant secretary of the navy.

7. The minotaur was a legendary men-ster with the body of a man and the head of a bull, kept in the labyrinth of Chosses, Crete, by King Mines. Theseus of Athens slew the animal, S, "A laverick in the lift" means a lack in the sky. The line is from Buras.

French is the language of the leiand of Guadaloupe in the West Indies.

The great general of King David was